Travel Award for Women's Participation at APA17 Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, 24th -27th July 2017

WAS-APC is providing the opportunity for female aquaculture people to attend Asia Pacific Aquaculture 2017 from 24-27 July 2017. Funding for this opportunity is provided by WAS-APC, and Aquaculture without Frontiers is facilitating the selection process.

The theme for Asia Pacific Aquaculture in Kuala Lumpur is 'Transforming for Market Needs'.

There are two (2) grants available x USD600 which are aimed to assist with accommodation and travel and WAS-APC will organise and pay registration for the event.

Applicants need to complete the application form and will be assessed against the following selection criteria:

1. Knowledge and understanding of the role of Women in the Aquaculture industry (20 points)
2. Capacity to contribute to the future development of the Aquaculture industry (30 points)
3. Potential benefits to the individual and the sector that they work in (30 points)
4. Demonstrated skills that will enable you to be an effective member of the WAS-APC information booth. (20 points)

Applicants must be willing to serve and assist at the WAS-APC Booth (as rostered).

As a result of your experience, after the event you must prepare within 30 days a report, including photographs, outlining issues that need to be considered by any aquaculture female prior to, during and after the Event to maximize the benefits of participation.

As a key member of the WAS-APC information booth, the successful candidates will help to coordinate and record enquiries for the Chapter. To be effective in this role you will need to:

- have reasonable computer literacy and typing skills
- take instructions from the leader of the booth and be able to work independently.

Applications must be made on the Official Application Form – click here.

Applications close on 4 April 2017.

Any enquiries should be referred to Dr Guillaume Drillet, President-Elect of the WAS-APC and Chair of the Award committee – email: gdr@dhigroup.com , and Dr. Bibha Kumari, Student Director of the WAS-APC- email: bibhak136@gmail.com

We look forward to seeing you in Kuala Lumpur !

Yours faithfully,
